

An Invitation to Attend APPLE Training, 2011

Southeast Kansas Library System invites you to attend Applied Public Library Education (APPLE).

The second year of APPLE will start with a two-day seminar where you will learn to serve your community and help meet its needs through:

- customer service training,
- advocating for your library with the community and trustees,
- learning best practices for serving youth,
- understanding the ways library collections are managed,
- doing all of this with your colleagues and system partners, and
- understanding WHY you are doing these things.

APPLE will again at be held at Cedar Crest Lodge, Pleasanton, Kansas, April 27-28, 2011. All expenses, including meals and overnight lodging will be paid for you by Southeast Kansas Library System. We want you, your board, and your library to succeed!

Space is reserved for all returning APPLE seeds from 2010, but you must register to confirm your plans to attend. A limited number of slots are available for new participants.

APPLE is designed for Southeast Kansas Public Library Directors who do not have a Master's Degree in Library Science.
