This 90-minute webinar will feature a panel of experts on “hot topics” in privacy today, plus practical tips and resources for developing library programming to engage the community.

Topics include:

- The USA Patriot Act and reader privacy: its history, how it affects libraries, its current status and thoughts on its future
- Airport screening and surveillance: evolving practices of the TSA and how they impact personal privacy
- Youth, privacy, and social networking: current research on privacy attitudes of young people
- Overview of specific resources that libraries can use to offer programs and events on these topics.

Q&A, discussion of privacy issues, and ideas and best practices for addressing them in the library.

Brought to you by American Libraries and ALA's
Office of Intellectual Freedom.
